

Praise the Lord and Good Morning,

I've been on jury duty for the past two days and the case we had to hear was a criminal case. While I won't bore you with the details, what seemed to be an open and shut case turned out to be more than what it appeared. We ended up deciding the defendant was not guilty (the young man's mother gasped when she heard the verdict and said "Thank You Jesus!" I wonder if she was saved, but I know she did thank the Lord for that decision).

It was basically two neighbors hating each other....with a twist of one neighbor being an officer and another being an ex-offender.....and then it got interesting.....after the trial was over, we learned that both parties had a few other issues.....we weren't permitted to hear that....but thankfully, the decision was correct.

I thought of judgment day, nothing is going to be missed on anyone by God...there's no holding back on God...thankfully He knows it all whether we tell Him or not.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad. (Luke 8: 17 KJV)

Matt 11:28-29 Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.
