

Rest For A Weary Soul Daily Devotional - Monday, December 11, 2006

Praise the Lord and Good Afternoon,

I apologize for this coming out to you so late in the day, most of the time I do get these out early in the morning, but today I was a potential juror for a criminal case. It ended up being settled prior to the trial. Hopefully that is it for me...

But yesterday during my travels from Pittsburgh to Dayton, I needed to fill up on gas. I was in a very heavy traffic area (near the Mall!) and as I was waiting for the traffic to move along, I noticed a car sitting in one of the fast-food chains waiting for someone to let her in. The traffic was pretty intense. There was a car in front of me that was blocking the driveway. I decided that I would let her in when I was able. She, obviously didn't know this and, while I don't know how long she'd been waiting, it was apparent that she was fed up with waiting. She backed up and took another route. But what was so surprising to me and the Lord had me pay attention to it...was the fact that had she waited just one more minute, she would have been able to leave....she didn't know I was going to let her in.....and by the time the driveway was open, she'd already turned away....

Instantly, I thought about us as saints....how often do we not realize just what the Lord has set in motion for us to receive....and we, in our lack of patience, make up our own minds to do something else...not even realizing we've missed a blessing?

Last week I talked about Jesus' family and neighbor missing out on healing because they couldn't see past yesteryear....I wonder how much we've missed by being quick to assess our situations from our perspective? Yes, it's easy to say just wait on the Lord....but we really do need to take that in and wait....because turning away could cost you more than you realize.....I don't know about you, but I've been through too much to turn away now....

14 Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD. (Psalms 27:14 KJV)

In the Master's Service,

Pastor Michele D. Turner
Rehoboth Apostolic Ministries, Inc.
Author/Publisher of Rest For A Weary Soul Daily Devotional
Copyright 2005 - 2006
www.restforawearysoul.com
Email: restforawearysoul@aol.com

Matt 11:28-29 Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.